The Coaching Staff

GEORGE ALLEN
HEAD COACH, GENERAL MANAGER AND VICE PRESIDENT

Fifth Year with Redskins. Became Head Coach of the Redskins January '71.

Since George Allen became Head Coach of the Redskins in 1971, the team has posted the best won-lost record in the National Football Conference with a mark of 40-15-1. They also made the playoffs in each of those four years, including winning the NFC Championship in 1972.

Thirty years had gone by since the Redskins played in their last world title game, 1942. Twenty-seven years had gone by since the Redskins had won a championship, 1945.

Last year the Redskins finished the regular season as NFC Eastern Divsion "Co-champions" with St. Louis. Both had 10-4 records; however, the Cardinals defeated the Redskins twice during the regular season, giving the Cardinals the Eastern Division Championship. The Redskins gained the "Wild Card" spot in the NFC and played Los Angeles, the Western Division Champion.

Never in the 38-year history of the Redskins have they played in four consecutive championship games. The 10-4-0 record in 1974 also represents the fourth consecutive year the Redskins have had a winning season. It has been since 1945 the Redskins came off with a string of winning years. They had consecutive winning seasons from their first year in Washington, 1937 through 1945. They had not even put two winning seasons together since that era until Allen's arrival and four winning ledgers in a row.

In 1971, Allen led the team to a 9-4-1 record. This was Washington's best record in 29 years. It earned the Redskins the "Wild Card" berth and their first playoff championship game in 26 years, 1945.

In 1972, enroute to their first appearance in the Super Bowl, Allen bettered his first year record with a regular season mark of 11 wins and 3 losses. This was the most wins in the 36-year history of the Redskins. The previous high was 33 years ago, 1942, when they had a 10-1-0 mark.

In 1973, the Redskins finished the season as NFC Eastern Division "Co-champions" with Dallas. Both had 10-4-0 records. The Cowboys earned the NFC title because of the 34-21 point advantage in the two-game competition. The Redskins earned the "Wild Card" spot in the NFC and played Minnesota, the Central Division Champion.

Allen, whose nine-year record of 89 wins, 32 losses and 5 ties (.736) is the best in the NFC, had his ninth consecutive winning mark with his fourth straight winning year as head coach of the Redskins and the five at Los Angeles. With the Redskins, he has won 40, lost 15 and had one tie. With the Rams, his five-year total was 49-17-4, making him the winningest coach in Ram history.

As NFC East "Co-champions," Allen kept intact his high division finishes each of his nine years. His first year, 1966, he finished third; 1967, first; 1968, second; 1969, first; 1970, second; 1971, second; 1972, first; 1973, tied for first and 1974, tied for first.

Coach George Allen

The Eastern Division "Co-championship" is the third for the Redskins in 29 years. Prior to that, the last division title was in 1945, when they finished with an 8-2-0 record and lost to the Rams for the title, 15-14. Their last world title was in 1942 when they finished the regular season with a 10-1-0 mark and won the world title with a 14-6 win over the Bears.

The Super Bowl World Championship game was preceded in 1971 during his first year by winning a spot in the National Football League playoffs with the second best record in the NFC, 9-4-1. This was the first time in the era of modern professional football that a Redskin team was involved in a championship playoff since 1945. The nine wins in 1971 were the most for a Redskin team in 29 years. The 11-3-0 record in 1972 represents the most wins in Redskin history. The nine wins in 1971 were the most since 1942. Since that winning season, before Allen came, the Redskins had only six winning seasons and two break-even years.

Also, it was 30 years ago that the Redskins won a title game at home, before the 16-3 playoff victory over the Central Division Champion Green Bay Packers and the 26-3 victory for the NFC Championship over the defending World Champion Dallas Cowboys.

The playoff game with the Vikings in 1973 was the fifth appearance of an Allen team in championship playoff games in his eight years as a head coach. The Rams were in playoff games twice; 1967, losing to Green Bay, 27-7; and 1969, losing to the Vikings, 23-20. In 1971, his first season in Washington, they took the "Wild Card" playoff game to San Francisco and lost, 24-20. In 1972, he won the NFC championship by winning over Green Bay, 16-3 and Dallas, 26-3. In the Super Bowl, Miami took a 14-7 decision. In 1973, the Redskins lost a 27-20 decision to the Vikings. In 1974, in his fourth consecutive playoff year, the Rams came from behind to beat the Redskins, 19-10.

With the 40-15-1 four-year record, Allen has posted a .736 winning percentage for the Redskins. This is the best four-year record by any coach in Redskin history. Allen needs only eight more victories to become the winningest head coach in Redskin history. Ray Flaherty, who coached the Redskins from 1937-42, currently has the best mark with a record of 47 wins, 16 losses and 3 ties.

The phenomenal turnabout with a team that had only one winning season during the previous 15 years before he took over, won for him, "Coach of the Year" honors both years. Again in 1972, for his taking the Redskins to the Super Bowl, he was voted both "NFL" and "NFC" Coach of the Year honors by various organizations. This marked the third time in his nine-year head coaching career that he had been so honored. He was Coach of the Year in 1967, his second year as head coach of the Rams.

Allen's "road record" is the best in the National Football Conference. His "road" record in regular season games is 43 wins, 18 losses and 2 ties. In his five years at Los Angeles, the "road" record was 26-7-2. With the Redskins he has won 17 and lost 11 on the road. In 1971, the Redskins lost to Kansas City and Chicago on the road. In 1972, they lost to New England and Dallas on the road. In 1973, all four losses were on the road. Last year, the Redskins lost three away games, to Cincinnati, St. Louis and Dallas. Four of his total of 18 "road" game losses came in his first year with the Rams in 1966. Since 1966, he has lost only 14 times in eight years on the road.

In his five years at Los Angeles, Allen led the Rams to a third place division finish in 1966; first in 1967; second in 1968; first in 1969; and second in 1970. His eleven wins, one loss and two ties in 1967 was the best season record in the history of the Rams. They played Conference title games against Green Bay and Minnesota. In two playoff bowls, they defeated Cleveland, 1968, and Dallas in 1970. Following the 31-0 win over the Cowboys, the Orange Bowl Committee gave Allen and the team a plaque congratulating them for their overall excellence and performance.

Allen went to Los Angeles in 1966 after the Rams had recorded seven consecutive losing seasons. The 1965 team had a 4-10 record. Allen quickly turned it all around as he won 8 and lost 6 in his first year as a professional head coach.

In 1967 Allen brought the Rams the best record in the history of the team with 11 wins, 1 loss and 2 ties. He was named "Coach of the Year" by UPI, The Sporting News and the Washington Touchdown Club, as well as "Co-coach of the Year" by the Associated Press for leading the team to its all-time winning mark. The overall record in '67, including pre-season, season, and playoff games was a fantastic 18-2-2 mark. The 1973 Rams set a new winning record with their 12-2-0 finish.

In 1968, Allen led the Rams to a second place finish to NFL Champion Baltimore. In 1969, they won the crown again, but lost the Western title to Minnesota. Then came a second place finish in 1970.

Allen's reputation and record of winning and principally his phenomenal record of winning road games lends additional hope for a winning record. This is a quality that sets him apart from other football coaches.

A check of four years before Allen shows the Redskins won only 10 of 28 road games (10-15-3). The Rams in that period, under Allen, won 23 of 28 (23-3-2).

This is the all-time NFL record. No other professional coach in the history of the game has ever won 23 road games in four years. Allen's coaching record on the road is more significant for the Redskins since Allen did it with the Rams, a team that couldn't win away from home before he took over.

In the five pre-Allen years, the Rams won only six games away from home, 6 wins, 28 losses, and 1 tie.

During the Allen era, they made a complete turnabout on the road, losing only 7 games. On the road, they had 26 wins, 7 losses and 2 ties. Four of those seven losses were in his first year, 1966. Since then, 1967-1970, Allen's teams lost only 3 times in these 4 years.

Allen's overall (5-year) Ram record was 49 wins, 17 losses and 4 ties, for a percentage of .700. Best in Ram history.

Allen, author of six books, began his pro coaching career with the Rams in 1957, after nine years at Morningside (Iowa) and Whittier (California). In 1958, he was beckoned by the Bears' George Halas to join his staff, and did, as the Bears' number one defensive coordinator. He proceeded to mold the Chicago defense into one of the best throughout the eight years he headed the Bears' defensive unit.

The height of his defensive coaching came following the Bears' NFL championship victory over New York in 1963. Assistant coach George Allen was presented the game ball by the Chicago players. The title win was attributed to the stout Bear defense that stopped the potent Giant offense.

Allen was born April 29, 1922, in Detroit, Michigan and attended Lake Shore High, where he earned nine letters; three in football, three in basketball and three in track. He was captain and all-conference in basketball.

In 1943 and 1944, under V-12 Naval Programs, he attended Alma College and played end. He moved on to Marquette University in 1944 and again played as a receiver. He completed his undergraduate work at the University of Michigan and was a member of the wrestling and baseball teams. He received his B.A. and M.A. from Michigan in 1947 and 1948, where he was a member of Sigma Delta Psi, national honorary athletic and scholarship fraternity. He also did graduate work on his doctorate at the University of Southern California.

On May 13, 1973, he was invited back to Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa (site of first head coaching job), to accept an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Allen has also initiated three scholarships, at Morningside College, Gallaudet, the nation's leading school for the deaf, in Washington; and a scholarship for an Indian youth. He started issuance of the Gallaudet scholarship in 1973 and has continued the award in 1974 and 1975. Those for Morningside and the Indian youth were started in 1974. The Indian youth scholarship is co-sponsored with the Washington Touchdown Club. He also is active in many community affairs and contributes much of his time to special projects. For the fourth straight year, this spring, he was chairman of the Metropolitan Summer Jobs for Needy Youth Campaign. At its end, over 26,000 summer jobs were obtained for area youths, the most in the country. Under his chairmanship, the Washington campaign led the nation during the last four years.

Allen married the former Etty Lumbroso. They have four children: George, Jr. (23), second year Law School at the University of Virginia; Gregory (21), a senior at the University of Delaware; Bruce (18), a sophomore at Richmond University, and Jennifer (14).

Larry Brown   Running Back   5:11   204
7th Year   Kansas State University   Born: Sept. 19, 1947, Clairton, Pa.

Became Redskin: Feb. 28, 1969. Selected in 8th round of 1969 draft.
Pro Career: In only his second year of pro football, led the NFL in rushing and became the first Redskin in history to rush for over 1000 yards. His totals were 1,125 yards in 237 attempts, a 4.75 average, with 5 TDs. Also caught 37 passes for 341 yards, a 9.2 average with 2 TDs. Despite injuries resulting in missing one complete game, Brown rushed for 100 yards or more in six games for the season total of 1,125 yards. The old Redskin rushing record of 951 yards was set by Rob Goode in 1951.

In his rookie year, Brown finished as the league's fourth leading rusher gaining 888 yards and catching 34 passes for 302 yards. He just missed "Rookie of the Year" honors which were won by the Cowboys' Calvin Hill. He had three over 100 yard games in 1969.

Brown was selected to, started and starred in, the Pro Bowl his first 4 years. 888, 1125, 948, 1216, 860, 430 — total: 5467. These are Brown's rushing figures for his 6 years. He is now 3rd among active NFC rushers. The one over-100 yard game in 1973 gives a total of 19. The 253 carries in 1971 were the most by a NFC ball carrier.

Brown won the 1972 NFC rushing crown with his 1216 yards. He lost the NFL rushing title to O. J. Simpson by 35 yards. Brown did not play in the final two games against Dallas and Buffalo. His 1216 yards was a new Redskin record. The previous record was his 1125 yards in 1970 when he won the NFL rushing title and became the first Redskin in history to make the elite 1,000 Yard Club. His 285 carries is also a new Redskin record for most rushes in a season.

Brown, NFL "Player of the Year" in 1972, closed out the 1973 season with four touchdowns against Philadelphia, 3 receiving and one rushing. This gave him a season total of 14, 8 rushing and 6 receiving. This ranked him number one in most touchdowns scored in the National Football League for the year. The 4 touchdowns also tied a single game record of most touchdowns a game. Dickie James had four in 1961. Brown's former high was seven in 1970, 5 rushing and 2 receiving.

In the season final against the Eagles, Brown rushed for 150 yards and had 105 yards on 3 TD pass receptions for 255 total yards. This was his all-time best total yard game.

Brown became only the third man in NFL history to gain more than 5000 yards rushing in his first five seasons. He had 5037 yards to rank 3rd among active rushers. Jimmy Brown had 6463 yards in his first five seasons while O. J. Simpson made his five-year total of 5181 last year.

His six-year 5467 rushing yards ranks him 3rd among the NFC active rushers. Ken Willard and Bill Brown are first and second.

He rushed over 100 yards once in 1973 to give him 19 for his career. He also rushed for 101 yards in the playoff game against the Packers in 1972 and 115 against the Vikings in 1973.

In 1974 Brown suffered a knee injury and started only ten regular season games. He did lead the team in rushing with 430 yards and total yardage with 818 yards. However, this ranked the first time in his career that he didn't exceed 1000 total yards in a season.

Became Redskin: Jan. 28, 1971 in trade with New Orleans for Tom Roussel plus 4th and 8th round picks in 1972 draft.

Pro Career: Originally selected by San Francisco in round 1 of 1961 draft. Was triggerman of their shotgun offense. Did not play in 1963 due to serious injuries suffered in automobile accident, nor did he play in 1965. Selected by Saints in 1967 expansion draft and earned starting job at opening of season. Known for determination and fortitude. Named NFL offensive player of week by AP in 1969.

For the Redskins in 1971, Kilmer led the team to its finest season in 29 years. He took over for the injured Jurgensen in the final pre-season game against the Bengals. For his outstanding performances, Kilmer was voted "Most Valuable Redskin, 1971," by his teammates. He also was honored by the Philadelphia sportswriters when they gave him the highly coveted "Most Courageous Athlete of the Year" award. He was fourth in the balloting for NFL Player of the Year award.

His best day was against the Rams as he led the 38-24 win hitting on 14 of 19 passes for 240 yards and 3 touchdowns, clinching a playoff berth. He won the "Offensive Player of the Week" award by Associated Press.

For the season, he finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL combined rating. His 13 interceptions was 4th fewest in the NFC.

After taking the Redskins in 1971 to their best season in 29 years and into the NFC Playoffs, Kilmer directed the Redskins to the Super Bowl in 1972 and most wins, 11, in the club's history.

He opened the '72 campaign and quarterbacked the first 3 games. Jurgensen then returned and led the Redskins to wins over Philadelphia, St. Louis and Dallas. In the opening offensive series of the seventh game against the Giants in Yankee Stadium, Jurgensen suffered a ruptured achilles tendon and was lost for the season.

Kilmer returned to lead the Redskins to six straight wins and the NFC Playoff win over Green Bay and the NFC championship over Dallas. He finished the season as the fourth ranked passer in the NFC, and fifth among NFL passers. He ranks sixth among the NFC's leading active passers.

His 19 TD passes were the most in the NFC and tied with the Jets' Joe Namath as the most in the NFL.

In the four years with the Redskins, Kilmer has won 31 regular season games as quarterback. He was the QB in 9 losses. In playoff and title games, he has won two and lost three. His two wins were in 1972 to get the Redskins into Super Bowl VII over Green Bay and Dallas. His losses were in the playoff game in 1971 at San Francisco, 1973 at Minnesota and 1974 at Los Angeles.

He had one of his finest games in the championship win over the Cowboys as he hit on 14 of 18 for 194 yards and two touchdowns, both to Charley Taylor. Against Green Bay, he was 7 of 14 for 100 yards and one scoring pass to Roy Jefferson.

Kilmer was intercepted but 11 times in 1972, fewest among ranked passers in the NFC. The 7.43 yards gained per pass was the best in the NFC.

Kilmer's 13-year totals rank him 7th among active passers in the NFC.

In 1973, he ranked 5th in the NFC and 8th in the NFL. Kilmer did not play in the third, fourth and fifth games in 1973. He returned to the lineup in the sixth game and led the Redskins to their third consecutive playoff championship game. He did, however, miss the second Dallas game because of an ankle injury. He returned to lead the team to a big season final game against the Eagles although he had spent three days in the hospital due to a stomach blockage. Following the Eagle game, he returned to the hospital and remained until Friday as the team prepared for the Viking playoff game. He rejoined the team and started the championship game and played exceptionally well. He underwent surgery for correction of the blockage.

Last year he ranked third among passers in the NFC, starting ten regular season games. He completed 58.5 percent of his passes, which was his top mark in his thirteen year career. The only games he missed were the fifth game against Miami, seventh game against St. Louis and the last game against Chicago.

Became Redskin: Dec. 13, 1964. Selected No. 9 in the 1964 draft.

Notable: He has caught more touchdowns (55) than any other tight end in NFL history.

Pro Career: Took over for Pres Carpenter at tight end after Carpenter's injury in Eagle game 1965. Started last five games. Fifth top receiver with 18 catches for 257 yards and 2 touchdowns. Recovered 2 opponents' fumbles, no return.

In 1966, Smith finished as the top receiver in the league among the tight ends with 54 catches, 686 yards and 6 touchdowns. He started the season as the number one split end, then was involved in the "big switch" that sent him to tight end and brought Charley Taylor from the backfield to split end. As split end, during the first six games, Smith caught 16 for 162 yards, 1 TD.

In 1967 Smith's 67 receptions were the most ever in the NFL by a Tight End, and his 12 touchdown catches tied him for leadership in most TD receptions by a Tight End with Mike Ditka, who caught 12 for the Bears in 1961. It also tied him with teammate Charley Taylor for the Redskin mark, 12. Smith's second place finish to Taylor was the closest a Tight End has ever come to winning the pass receiving title. He is the third Tight End receiver ever to finish in the top 10 with his 3 finishes following his 7th place ranking in 1969. The others to finish in the top 10 have been Mike Ditka (4 times) and Pete Retzlaff (3 times).

In 1968, Smith played all season as flanker when he caught 45 passes, 9th best in the league.

For 1969's unanimous All-Pro tight end Smith, his 54 receptions and 9 touchdown catches represented the best by the League's tight ends. It also marked the third time Smith has been the number one tight end in the League, 1966 with 54; 1967 with 67. It was also the 4th consecutive year he finished in the top ten pass leaders of the NFL. His three TD receptions against Dallas marked the second time in his career that he has caught three. He caught three against the Rams in 1967.

In 1970, with a vastly improved backfield and resultant running game, lowering the necessity for relying primarily on passing, Smith finished as the Redskins leading receiver with 43 catches for 575 yards and 9 TDs, most in NFC by a Tight End.

In 1971, an aggravating groin injury kept him out 5 games and was not at full strength all season. His sparse play gave him only 16 receptions, 1 TD, his lowest career output. He now ranks eighth in NFC active pass receivers.

In 1972, he had 21 for 353 yards and seven touchdowns. The seven scores were the most caught by a tight end in the NFC and second highest in the NFL. The Raiders' Raymond Chester led the NFL with eight touchdowns.

In 1973, he suffered four fractured back vertebrae in the second pre-season game against Denver. He returned the fifth league game against the Giants. Was scoreless for the first year in his nine years in the NFL.

Last year, Smith managed to stay injury-free and responded with 44 receptions which was his best total since he was the N.F.L.'s top tight end receiver in 1969 with 54 catches. His 44 receptions also ranked second in the NFC among tight ends.

Charley Taylor   Wide Receiver   6:03   210
12th Year   Arizona State Univ.   Born: Sept. 28, 1941, Grand Prairie, Tex.

Became Redskin: Dec. 2, 1963. Redskins No. 1 draft choice for 1964.
Notable: His 53 receptions on way to 1964 Rookie of Year honors set new NFL record for most receptions by a running back in the NFL at that time. The new record set by ex-teammate Charley Harraway, 55 catches in 1969, leaves him currently in second place.
Pro Career: 1964 Rookie of the Year, first Redskin to win this honor. First rookie since 1943 to be in top ten, rushing and receiving—6th rushing; 8th receiving. All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection first four years in the league, Taylor won the pass receiving title for 1966, catching 72 passes for 1119 yards and 12 touchdowns. He repeated in 1967 as top NFL receiver with 70 for 990 yards and 9 TDs. The 72 receptions tied the Redskin season record held by Bobby Mitchell. Taylor was part of the "big switch" midway through the 1966 season. The Redskins' finest running back was moved to split-end. The switch came in the seventh game against St. Louis. It was late in the first quarter that Taylor surprised and left his halfback post and went outside. Before the switch, from his halfback spot, Taylor caught 18 passes for 348 yards and 4 scores. Seven games later, he finished as the league leader. His 12 TDs by receptions tied him with Hugh "Bones" Taylor for most touchdowns by receptions for a Redskin and his total of 15 set a new Redskin touchdown mark for a season. Against Dallas in the first game, Taylor caught 11 passes to tie Mitchell's mark for most receptions in a game. He caught passes for more than 100 yards in five games. He had 4 in 1967.

The 1-2-4 finish by Taylor, Smith and Mitchell in 1967 marked the first time in the history of the NFL that three receivers on the same team finished that high, and the combined 197 receptions was the most by a threesome in the top-finishers, ever. The finish in 1967 was even more phenomenal since Taylor missed three games because of an injury and Mitchell was running back for five games, from the second through the sixth game. Taylor led the team in receptions again in 1968 with 48, 7th in the NFL.

In 1969, after Mitchell retired at the beginning of the season, Taylor placed second in the league with 71 receptions for 883 yards and 8 touchdowns. Going into the final game of 1969 he was tied with the winner, the Saints' Danny Abramowicz, who finished with 73.

Taylor ranked in the top ten receivers each of his first six years in the league and was well up among the leads in 1970 until an injury suffered in the third quarter of the 10th game of the season against Dallas on Nov. 22nd sidelined him for the remainder of the season. His season total was still 42 catches for 593 yards and eight touchdowns.

Taylor broke two Redskin Records in 1970. He supplanted Hugh Taylor for most touchdowns, lifetime, with 61. The old record was 58 (all on passes). Charley scored 50 TDs on passes, 11 by rushing. He also replaced Bobby Mitchell in the category of Most Pass Catches, lifetime. Taylor totaled 396 catches for 5,615 yards and 50 TDs. Mitchell's old record was 392 receptions for 6,480 yards and 49 TDs.

In 1971, he added to this record although sidelined for the second season in a row. He suffered a fractured ankle in Kansas City as he was scoring his second touchdown of the game near half-time. He was out the rest of the season. The TD catch was his 7th in the half to give the Redskins a 17-6 half-time lead. In 5½ games, he caught 24 for 370 yards and 4 scores. Had 2 over 100-yard games.

He was the Redskins' leading receiver in 1972 with 49 receptions, 673 yards and seven touchdowns. In 1973 he again led the Redskin receivers with his 59 catches. This was second in both the NFL and the NFC. In 1974 he had another fine year with 54 receptions which ranked him 4th in the NFC.

Taylor is currently the No. 1 Active Pass Receiver in the National Football League. His 582 career catches moved him into third place among all-time (career) reception leaders. Raymond Berry ranks second with 631 catches and Don Maynard has the most, 633.

He has scored 84 touchdowns in his 11-year career and needs five more touchdowns to become the 10th player in NFL history to score at least 500 points on touchdowns. He has scored 68 receiving and 11 rushing. He ranks 6th among the top ten active scorers in the NFC with 504 points.

Taylor's 84 career touchdowns place him 10th on the NFL's all-time TD list. He needs 16 more to join the elite trio of Jim Brown (126), Lenny Moore (113), and Don Hutson (105) as the only players in the NFL to score more than 100 TDs in their careers.

He has gained 8,208 yards and scored 73 touchdowns on his 582 catches. In addition, while a running back for 2½ years, he has 1,489 yards and 11 TDs rushing, plus 133 yards on five kickoff returns, 63 yards on five punt returns and nine yards on fumble returns. His combined total offense is 9902 yards and 84 touchdowns.

Subsequently, the NFL cleared the Redskins to negotiate with him.

REDSKIN PLAYOFF RECORD

1971 Redskins—Eastern Division, NFC, Wild Card Winner, 9-4-1
Dec. 26, 1971—Redskins 20, San Francisco 24

Redskins take a 10-3 halftime lead but fail to cash in on scoring opportunities. A Brodie to Washington 78-yard scoring pass ignites a winning 49er counter-attack.

1972 Redskins—Eastern Division Champions, NFC, 11-3-0
Playoff Game—Dec. 24, 1972—Redskins 16, Green Bay 3

Powerful Redskin defense cuts off Green Bay running attack and the Redskins win their first playoff game under the new NFL championship rules. Billy Kilmer hit Roy Jefferson for a score and Curt Knight kicked three field goals.

NFC Championship Game—Dec. 31, 1972—Redskins 26, Dallas 3

The Redskins win their first conference championship in 30 years with a smashing victory over the Cowboys who were the defending conference and Super Bowl champions. Kilmer flipped two touchdowns to Charley Taylor and Knight booted a playoff record 4 field goals. Defense was outstanding all day.

Super Bowl VII—Jan. 14, 1973—Redskins 7, Miami 14

Undefeated Miami cooled off the Redskins attack and the Dolphins became Super Bowl champions with the first undefeated season by any NFL team since the 1941 Chicago Bears.

1973 Redskins—Eastern Division Co-Champions, NFC, 10-4
Dec. 22, 1973—Redskins 20, Minnesota 27

Both Dallas and the Redskins finished the regular season with identical 10-4 records, but because of the point differential, in head-to-head play, the Redskins were assigned the NFC "wild card" berth.

The Redskins played the Minnesota Vikings in Bloomington, Minnesota and were led by quarterback Billy Kilmer who had spent all of that week in a Washington, D.C. hospital with a stomach ailment that required surgery after the season. Redskins lost to the Vikings 27-20.

1974 Redskins—Eastern Division Co-Champions, NFC, 10-4
Dec. 22, 1974—Los Angeles 19, Redskins 10

Although both the Redskins and Cardinals finished with identical records of 10-4 in the NFC's Eastern Division, the Redskins were again awarded the "wild card" berth since they lost to the Cardinals twice during regular season play.

The Redskins played the NFC Western Champion Los Angeles Rams in LA. Despite holding a 10-7 lead at half-time, the Redskins were unable to score in the second half and faltered 19-10.

Victory—quarterback Billy Kilmer gets the game ball and congratulations from Co-Captain Len Hauss.

The Super Bowl

In 1970, the NFL was divided into two 13-team conferences, comprised of the 26 teams formerly competing in the National Football League and the American Football League. Each conference was further divided into three divisions, the winner of each conference to be determined by a playoff of the three division winners plus the second place team within the conference with the best record. The winner of the two conferences meet in the NFL title game — The Super Bowl.
